

Mark Moritz is an attorney in Chandler. His practice is limited to estate planning, with an emphasis on “non-boilerplate” situations. In addition to his law degree from Arizona State University, he has also earned the designations of Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) and Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC). He is a board member of the East Valley Estate Planning Council, founding member and past president of the Valley Estate Planners, member and past president of the Planned Giving Round Table of Arizona, and member and past chairman of the Probate and Trust Section of the Maricopa County Bar Association.