

The morning hours can be quite hectic for some of our members. Please help make it a better experience for those last to arrive by filling seats near the front of the room first, and leaving overflow seating for later arrivals and at the door guests.

At the Door: Hey, it happens to all of us, sooner or later. So, if you didn't register, and you want to attend, don't feel as if you shouldn't join us...come on down!

Just a few things to remember:

You won't be on the sign in sheet; sign in on the "at the door" list.

If you are a member, you will have a nametag. If you are a guest "at the door", a nametag will be made at the registration table.

It helps if those arriving "at the door" hang back a little before taking a seat and a handout, so that staff can be sure all registered attendees get a seat and a handout.

Usually, those arriving "at the door" just about equal our last minute no shows, and we always plan for a few extras...so accommodating you with a seat, handout, and great breakfast is easy.

Sometimes, our "at the doors" far exceed our planned capacity, and we need to set up extra tables and chairs.

We may run out of handouts: if so, e-mail EVEPC@PremiumOrganization.com the next day, and a set will be sent to you. Or, download them from the website!
